I thought this series would blow me away. But now I read book No. 3 and I'm a bit disappointed. :/The book started good. Thia was so funny when she was 10 years old. The way they met and how Thia and Bear interacted with each other was great. I loved how he gave her this ring and the promise. I was starting to like Bear in Tyrant and hoped to fall in love with him in Lawless. Unfortunately it didn't happen. I still like him but sometimes I just thought: "A (you know hates this word)". Thia sometimes seemed like a teenager (what she kinda is) and then again like a strong, stubborn woman doing what she wants. But after everything happened and after she met Bear again- she wasn't the funny Thia I was hoping to read about. Maybe it was because of it, but it kinda felt like she wasn't the person she was supposed to be. Somehow this book bored me at times. I kinda felt like I'm reading King and Does story all over again just with different names, scenes and a different background story. Bear and Thea- how they talked, what they said and did- lots of scenes reminded me on King and Doe and it's kinda sad. Like Bear and Thea doesn't have their own personality. :(Preppy had a tiny part here too. As he's my fave character of this series I wish, he would have "talked" to Bear more often. Preppy was barely mentioned which led to me missing him. He probably would have brought more fun to this book. Sometimes I had to stop reading, because TM Frazier seemed to have forgotten what she wrote? I don't know. There were things that confused me a bit. SPOILER START: For example: Thia was tortured and r...d by Bear's Dad at the beginning. She was touched by Bear in her private parts somewhen later. But then at a much later point, Bear asks her if she was ever touched there and she "says" no? Huh? His father r...d her with his fingers and put his D in her behind (sorry wouldn't let me post my review before I censored lots of words. Eyes rolling) , but she says she was never touched in her private parts? And it's not the only time I thought: " Huh? What? Wait, that can't be right SPOILER ENDIt kinda stopped the reading flow :/The book got better and more interesting till the end, though. I will continue this series as planned and hope Soulless will be better than Lawless. At least this book was seen by an Editor ;) While King and Tyrant had lots and lots of spelling/grammar mistakes, this one had (almost) none. This book ends in a cliffhanger. I'm not bothered by it as I already have the next book ;) But some might, so if you dont like cliffhangers and can't dive into Soulless right away- you might want to wait till you have book No. 4.0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Fast noch besser als King !!!!Von Die AutorinflsterinEine grandiose Fortsetzung der King-Reihe. Diesmal hat sich T.M. Frazier sogar selber betroffen. Die Geschichte ist der Wahnsinn. Das Leben von Bear, den man bereits aus den King- Bchern kennt, war alles andere als einfach: von Mutter getrennt, lebt er bei seinem herzlosen Vater, den Pres des MC Clubs, ohne jegliche Zuneigung und flt blind seine Aufgaben aus. Lediglich zu King und Preppy fhlt er sich in einer Freundschaft hingezogen, die sein Vater keineswegs billigt. Um King zu helfen, trifft er eine Entscheidung und verlsst den Club, aber niemand verlsst den Club. so verfolgt ihn sein Vater und will seinen Tod. Da kommt ihm das Mdchen, dem Bear vor Jahren sein Ring geschenkt hat, wie gerufen. Um an Bear ranzukommen, misshandelt er sie und will sie in Stecke reißen, doch unerwartet bekommt sie Hilfe und lsst bei King. Der erkennt Beats Ring und bringt ihn zu Rckkehr, doch damit fangen die Probleme erst richtig an. Eine wahrlich grandiose Story, die mich vom ersten Satz an gefesselt hat. Chapeau an die Autorin, die dieses Meisterwerk geschaffen hat.1 von 1 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Ich liebe bearVon julia grasmueckOh mein gott ich wei nich mit was ich anfangen soll. Ich liebe diesen Typ. Ich hatte bereits king gelesen und fand die Bcher auch echt toll. Aber bear ist einfach unfassbar toll. Ich wei, die Bcher sind super brutal. Meiner Meinung nach manchmal zu krass, aber das sind halt echte Biker u keine weichspler Bad boys. Ich war ja von King schon unheimlich fasziniert, aber bear hat mir noch ein bisschen besser gefallen. Normalerweise empfehle ich keine Fortsetzungen von Buch Reihen. Hatte bisher auch nur schlechte Erfahrungen damit. Aber diese Reihe ist unfassbar gut und es gibt eine klare lese Empfehlung von mir. Warum hat mir bear besser gefallen als king. Und da gibt es nur ein Grund er ist trotz seiner harten und gefhrlichen schale ein so cooler sensibler Typ. Kann man schlecht in Worte fassen. Als er zum Schluss zu ihr sagt gib mich nicht auf und ich liebe dich ,hatte ich echt Trnen in den Augen. Also wer hart im nehmen ist u auf so einen tolle Typen wie auf den cover bzw Biker steht, kann bei diesem Buch nichts verkehrt machen.
