Wonderful novellaVon To catch a falling book Its Valentines Day in Oban and the four couples want to celebrate it properly, but of course nothing goes as planned. Nevertheless its a wonderful, romantic day for all of them. For the fifth time Tracey wrote a beautiful story about love, partnership and family. The only flaw: its way too short! :D I cant get enough of the unique setting and the likeable characters because they already are like family. I love Tracey Alvarez and her Due South Crew, so please dont stop writing! :) I recommend this whole series to everyone who loves funny, sexy, true-to-life contemporary romance. Part I is currently free, so grab it! 0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. A must read! Von Marie Palmer A quirky Valentines novella to catch up with the four Due South couples so far. As with all the series so far there is plenty of laughs, tears, fun, sex, plot twists, family interference, more sex and men doing stupid things because they thought they were a good idea and hadn't really thought them through! If you have read the first four books you have to read this, it has some fantastic twists that will have you gasping out loud and more to have you cheering, even as the happy tears fall. It is only a novella, but a fantastic page turner of one! Cannot wait for more visits to Oban and the amazing Due South family.
