Nashoda Rose hat es richtig gut drauf und wenn ich die Rezensionen

der anderen Bnde lese, steigert sie sich. Die folgenden 2 Bnde waren spitze. DECK (obwohl er erst im letzten Band wirklich zeigt wie er tickt) und seine Mannen, ebenso Kai haben dem ganzen doch immer wieder eine gute spannende Wendung gegeben. Deck mit seiner Engelsgeduld und Loyalitt hat vieles kompensiert was mich an Georgie masslos genervt hat. Dieses Weib ist auch Schuld daran, dass ich Punkte abziehen musste, vorwiegend... Ich dachte whrend dem Buch sicher 20x ich wrd die Alte in den Hintern treten mssen und hatte stndig das Bedrfnis: Lauf weg, Deck! zu rufen.Zu laut, zu verstrt.....meh, meh nur nervig.Angie schrieb auf Goodreads: -- Georgie? -- she was an idiot. A whiny, immature idiot. I'm so sick of whiny, stupid heroines. Da kann ich mich nur anschliessen, sorry, keine Browniepoints for little Georgie.P. S. Sie bleibt auch in den weiteren Bnden anstrengend und ziemlich nervig (fr mich)... Da konnten die Szenen in denen sie weich, verletzlich und sensibel war fr mich nix mehr retten.Fr mich das absolut schwchste Buch in dieser Serie. Man muss es jedoch lesen um zu den weiteren beiden, die definitiv 5 Sterne wert sind aufschlieen zu knnen.....1 von 1 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Nichts fr Mnner!Von MerleHarte Liebesgeschichte mit echten Kerlen, d.h. Sldnern. Die Story spielt in der gleichen Umgebung wie Tear Asunder.Mit 16 Jahren verliert Georgie ihren Bruder Connor bei einem militrischen Einsatz. Kurz danach wird sie selber schwer traumatisiert und dmpelt nur noch vor sich hin. Verliebt in Deck, den besten Freund ihres Bruders, der sie zwar beschttzt, aber nichts von ihr will, will sie zehn Jahre spter ihre Jungfrulichkeit bei einem One Night Stand loswerden. Doch da mischt sich Deck ein. Georgies jahrelang verheimlichte Geheimnisse kommen an den Tag und ihr Leben wird gefhrlich.Tolle Mnner, tolle Frau und mchtige Bsewichte. Die Liebenden finden sich, aber die Story geht weiter. Etwas zu viel Klischees und seitenweise nasse Hschen der nervigen Heldin. Um die Hintergrnde zu verstehen, muss man allerdings weiterlesen.0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. One word: PerfectVon LittleDarling"Perfect Chaos" is exactly that - perfect.A spin-off of Nashoda Rose's "Tear Asunder" series, "Perfect Chaos" tells the tale of Deck and Georgie and is also the beginning of the "Unyielding" series.It is an intelligently crafted web of romance, suspense, heart-ache, action and steam.Once I started reading, I was glued to the sofa until my behind was numb. I forgot to eat and drink. I even forgot to blink at times. This book with all its secrets and deceits made me lose sleep and I wouldn't want it any other way.My constant mantra while reading was a flabbergasted "What the f...?!?!", often followed by a shocked "OMG!!!".All the characters in the story were intriguing. Some of them we knew from "Torn From You" and "Overwhelmed By You". Other were introduced for the first time. But they all have one thing in common: I want to know more about them. They all have depth and mystery surrounds them. They seem like they might have a good story of their own to tell. Rest-assured, I am bugging Nashoda to no end to share their story with us.But for now we have this amazingly perfect story. A story about losses, the pain and the hope as well as the love that paves the path of Deck's and Georgie's lives.Deck, a man that is the epitome of strength, testosterone, honor and loyalty. Having served with Georgie's brother Connor, he made a vow to protect Georgie should the war claim Connor's life. And this is what he has been doing for the past years - without a compromise he's been making sure she is okay.Despite his growing feelings for her, he is unyielding in his promise to Connor, ignoring the emotional and physical reactions he has to her.He manages to keep an eye out on her even while being half way around the world doing what he does best - being a hardcore fighter that rids the world of dangerous and bad people.Little does he know that some of those people have Georgie caught in their web of deceit and betrayal, with the power to turn his world and all he knew upside down.But it's not just his world that is confused and full of lies.Georgie is basically living a lie, although we don't get to find out what it is for a long time. After her brother died, her life changed and not even Deck can protect her from the demons that haunt her every minute.In the sea of lies, the only things that are real for her are Deck and her feelings for him. Feelings that are unrequited due to a promise he made.No matter how hard she tries, she can't stop wanting him. Yet she fears if she ever reveals the truth, she'll lose him forever and will end up not only putting her own life in danger, but his as well.So she just keeps the pain and anguish bottled up until circumstances force it to spill over. To her surprise, Deck isn't easily scared. But the secret he is hiding could have the ability to crush her broken heart irrevocably.They need to decide if their love is strong enough to win over the secrets and lies.This story is so much more than a romance. It has just the right amount of darkness and suspense. Together with the characters, it makes for an addicting read and I cannot wait for my next fix.5+ dark and suspenseful, unyielding stars.
