 ...adorably funny sexy moving Romance! So much better than the first book!Von Bianca @BJsBBThis was sooo much better than the first book!!PUCKED tried to be funny way too hard...but this second book.... I LOVED IT!I was so afraid Helena wouldn't make Buck likeable enough for me, but he's so amazing. He's not the stupid idiot we saw in the first book.He's so much more - he has so many hidden secrets and desires and problems and hopes and ugh...just adorable.And his cute adorable Sunshine. The vegan-almost-virgin Sunny. Those two fit together perfectly.Of course it's not HAPPY EVER AFTER from the start..LOTS of problems come between them - mostly because Sunny just can't trust him....which I found a bit stupid, once or twice, ok...he has a reputation after all - but so many times? But still - I loved the book.It was soo sexy, sooo funny, sooo adorable moving - I even shed a few tears!!!!I even liked Alex better than I liked him in his own book, even or maybe because he only appeared when he wanted hit/kill Buck/Miller I can't wait to read the next book - PUCKED OVER - I hope it's about Randy or Lance.0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Poison Ivy and Spiderbites...Von Glckskind...are not the only dangers or obstacles that are thwon on Miller (Buck) and Sunny SUNshine during their journey to a HEA. Honestly I was really anxious to read the second book after I finished the first one, because in Pucked Buck already showed that he has a nice caring side and that besides being a manwhore, he's a good guy. But he keeps getting in pucked up situations he never thinks about what makes it hard for Sunny to trust him...In the end everything is good and I had to put my Kindle down on a few parts to stop laughing, because it was so hilarious.There was just one thing that Pucked Up made bad for me: Alex is such an a*****e. I don't think he gets to me in the next books. Because his whole behaviour was just completely jerkish... I hat that he put Violet under such stress and how he treated Sunny. Nope. MC or not, Alex won't get to be my favourite anymore, but I am really excited to read Randy's and Lily's book. :)0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Not as good as the first bookVon Stefanie K.We already knew from book one "Pucked" that Buck and Sunny started dating. This books starts after "Pucked" in the timeline. We never went through the get-to-know phase with them which made it difficult for me to feel the chemistry between them.The story itself was quite simple and I started to get a little bit annoyed with the same drama again and again.Besides that I found the book very entertaining. Again I loved the humour and some moments were really hilarious. There were also some sweet and steamy scenes between Buck and Sunny but to me they just couldn't reach Violet and Alex as a couple.I loved every moment Violet showed up, that girl is so awesome. I definetely have a girl crush on her.

Except, unlike team captain and all-around nice guy Alex Waterswho happens to date his stepsister, Millers media reputation as a manwhore is well earned.
