Von Tessa Bailey : Risking it All (Crossing the Line series) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Risking it All (Crossing the Line series):

KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. 5 million HOLY Smoking stars!!!Von CassandraNo matter what I will write here, will be able to do the book/series justice! It's definitely a MUST READ!Sera has taken off from her job as a cop to go undercover and bring justice to her brother's death. That means she has to investigate around one of Brooklyn's worst badass - Hogan. As it turns out, a shooting in the diner she works is her ticket to get closer than she might have wished. Hogan takes her to his club so she can take care of his cousin who got shot and has a bad injury. As a former nurse it comes easy to her. So in the days to come, she either takes care of Connor or waitresses in the club below. Unfortunately for her, she hears things she shouldn't and Hogan already plans to get rid of her. Remember Bowen from Riskier Business? Yep, he had to take over his father business, if he wanted or not. So he's left to deal with the scum of the streets and keep his reputation one of fear and no-s-allowed. So it's nothing new when he gets arrested. But it's not the usual place they get him, no this time it's the headquarters and the commissioner himself makes him an offer. His niece got undercover and no one heard a word about it. Bowen should help find her and get her out unharmed. It would be a plus if they get the ledger from Hogan as well. Working with the cops? Yeah, definitely what Bowen has always dreamed about. To convince him, the commissioner throws in to spread the word what Bowen's involvement was in taking his father down. That also means, putting Ruby on the spot. Something he wants to prevent even more than safe his own ass. So when Troy steps in as well, Bowen has no other choice as to do what's ask. But under his condition. When he sees Sera's picture...stuff just gets even worse. Bowen and Hogan working on a deal together. So it's not unusual when Bowen steps into Hogan's club to get into contact with Sera. In this first very funny and teasing meeting, both experience a chemistry they both are overwhelmed of. This leads to an alley scene that is sweet and romantic and a kiss like no other. But also to more complications. As Hogan finds out, he has a talk with Bowen. He reveals he needs to get out of town for a week and then has to take care of Sera. Yep, not the good kind. So Bowen offers to watch out for Sera during that time, at his apartment. She can check on Connor and work in the club. But other than that, she has to be with him 24/7. As Sera got a first glimpse on the ledger and sees Bowen's name there as well, she suspects that Bowen was somehow involved in her brother's death. After being not so happy about the arrangement she gives in and hopes to get more answers. This week turns out to be a dance of willpower, passion, secrets, teasing, anxiety, violence and falling in love. A sweet romantic get-away ends in an attack on Sera which leaves Bowen with no choice but to take care of the attacker. Sera is an innocent virgin that is tougher than she appears. Underestimated her whole life, she goes after what she wants. That also includes giving in to the hot fire that burns between her and Bowen and ends in steamy passion between the sheets, or in an alley, or on the stairs. Bowen is not your typical hero. He's a bad guy and doesn't hide it. But he's also more than that. He's vulnerable without losing his manly appearance. You can only fall for him. The story is heavy with plot, steamy scenes and anxiety that keeps you on the edge. There was a lot of ohs, giggles, sighs, squirms and oh hell nos while reading that for me. We already meet Connor here and get a little excerpt for Up In Smoke, the next book in the Crossing The Line series! And am already excited to read it. This is going to be fun hehe Well, well done Tessa Bailey!
