A really sexy moving romance - can't wait for book #2Von Bianca @BJsBBWe already met Damien Stark's personal assistant Sylvia in the previous books and we also met Jackson for a second in the last Stark Novella: PLAY MY GAME.... Jackson is the rising star of the architecural world, and Damien wanted him for his Bahamian couples-island-resort-thing. But Jackson declined - he didn't want to work in Damien's shadow. (and there might also be a couple of other tiny little reasons for not wanting to be anywhere near Damien but we won't find out about those until much later)Recently, Sylvia got very lucky finding an article about an island that might be for sale - an island not far from LA - Santa Cortez - in the California Channel Islands. But finding it and getting Damien on board and buying it and getting all the permits is only the beginning - their famous architect dropped out and now they need a new one, or Sylvia's first solo-project will die. Enter: Jackson Steele. Mega-Hot Architectural-Super-Star....and he's no stranger to our Sylvia. Five years ago they've been happy together for a short, but very intense time...but Sylvia screwed up and destroyed everything...her fears of whatever happened to her in her youth made her leave him....And now he's back in LA for work and she has to swallow all her pride and attraction and literally beg him to work with her....And Jackson might even be interested in the job - but he wants more than that - more than Sylvia might be able to give....Plus - there are still way too many secrets between them...What will happen to Sylvia Jackson? Will there be a HEA? Will everybody die at the end? Or will there be a horrible Cliffhanger? I'M NOT TELLING YOU THAT OF COURSE... I don't want to spoil anything OK - no real Cliffy - but there's still a lot to overcome - lots of secrets and whatnots

FIVE BIG FAT STARS!!!!!! JACKSON STEELE!!!!!! I loooved Jackson! And Sylvia too of course - only I don't really love her name - a Sylvia for me, is a 65-year-old, white-haired librarian I loved the story. And I loooved that we got to see Damien Nikki again There was sooo much sexiness in that book - even before the real sex even started - Jackson just talking sexy was sooo effing hot We also get to hear a bit about what happened five years ago - how they met in Atlanta...I loved the first line that Jackson ever said to Sylvia: "Let me guess. You've seen one panda, you've seen them all." They could've been so perfect for each other...but Sylvia's past stopped her from giving them a real chance for a perfect future :/ So now the reader hopes that she can finally get over whatever happened and give the poor guy another chance... or else I'll take him!!!! SAY MY NAME was a really sexy and moving romance. You will sooo want your own Jackson Steele after reading it Now please hurry with book #2 - I NEEEEED to know what will happen next with Jackson Sylvia!!!!
